KINGSVILLE. Ed. Telegraph: Of the happy gatherlags of our community, that of Wednesday. evening list at the house of Mr. H. J. Gillett, was one of the most pleasant. Mr. Gillett, with his family, is soon to leave for Connecticut, their future residence. His connection, for years, with a class of young lades in the S. S. of the Presbyterian church, was made the occasion of an expression of love and esteem. A surprise party was inaugurated by the class, together with the Pastor and lady, superintendent and lady, librarian and lady, &c., to the number of thirty or more, and the programme proved a very happy one. Last Thursday witness d three funerals Though the deceased were not all of this town, their remains found a resting placin our cemetery-Mis. W. part of our township, who in her departure was preceded by her husband only some six or eight months. She had attained the age of nearly 88 years. Mrs. Myers died in Berrian, Mich. The inct of many years of her life having been spent here and having a mother, brother and sister here, were the considerations, undoubtedly, that led to the choice of this, as the resting place for her remains. The funeral of Miss Dolly Van Slyke, daughter of Mr. Abram Van Slyke, of North Kingsville, took place on Sunday tast. Pulmonary difficulties, of many month's standing, was the cause of death.

Mrs. Eunice Jerome, wife of Merritt Jeome, Esq., of this town, died very suddenly, on Sunday morning. She had not been well during the night, but got up and dressed in the morning; not feeling well, she went into her room and lay down, while Mr. J. prepared a cup of tefor her. When he took the tea to her she was lying on the bed, quite dead. Apoplexy was probably the cause. She was one of the early settlers of this town, and was respected by all who knew her. SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY FOR APRIL - The April number of SCRIBNER's contains an other generous justallment of Mr. King "Great South," the subject this time b ing, "A Ramble in Virginia, from Bristol to the Sea." The illustrations, as usual, are profuse. Among the notable features of he number are the beginning of Jules Verne's serial, "The Mysterious Island;" manipulates the transactions and provides | be published, and it is sent herewith, that | the articles on Modern Scepticism entitled, "Christ's Resurrection Scientifically Considered;" and a timely paper, by Miss Beedy, on "The Health and Physical Habits of English and American Women." Noah Brooks has an article "Concerning some Imperial Booty." The new story-writer, George W. Cable, tells a tale of the "Belles Demoiselles Plantation." Mrs. Davis' s rial is concluded, and Miss Trotton's continued. The number opens with an ildustrated poem by Benjamin F. Taylor, and there are verses by A. R. Macdonough John Fraser, J. G. H., Charlotte F. Bates, and E tward King. Dr. Holland, in Top. ics of the Times, writes about "Jules Verne's N. w Story," "The Taxation of Church Property," and "Social Usages." The Obt Cabin-t is concerned with "Veracity;" Am steur Theatricals are practically discussed in Home and Society, and the other departments have their characteristic variety

LOCAL NOTICES. Centaur Liniment.

There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling it will no subdue and no lam-ness which it will not cure. This is strong anguage, but it is true. It has produced more cures of rheu matism, neuralgia, lock-jaw palsy, sprains, swellings, caked-breasts, scalds, burns, salt-meam, car ache, &c., upon the human frame, and of strains, spavin, galls, &c., upon animals in one year than maye all other pretenden remedies since the world began. It is a counter-irritant, an all nealing pain reliever. Cripples throw away their crutches, the lame walk, poisonous bites are rendered harmless, and the wounded are healed without a scar. It is and it sells because it does just what it pretends pain or swelling deserve to suffer if they will not use Centaur Liniment. More than 1,000 certificates of remarkable cures, including frozen limbs. chronic rhenmatism, goul, running tumors, &c., mave been received. We send a circular contain mg certificates, the recipe, &c., gratis, to any one requesting it. One buttle of the yellow wrapper Centaur Liniment is worth one handred dollars for spayined or sweenled horses or mules, or los screw wurm in sheep.
